

Group and Private Events at the Savory Spoon

Let Chef Janice Thomas create a private event just for you! With capacity of up to 20 people, the setting will provide an intimate and fun atmosphere for your next gathering. Choosing your own menu in a hands-on or demo format, your group will share great memories in the kitchen! Groups such as Road Scholars, Elder Hostel, Bridal and Baby Showers, and Corporate teambuilding have joined us!

The setting is in the former village school house, built in 1879. This historic building was carefully restored in 2005 reclaiming itself as a local landmark. The former 2 room school is now equipped with state of the art equipment, tools and fixtures. The school features the very latest in cooking and refrigeration equipment from Sub-Zero/Wolf, and the finest in culinary tools and small appliances.

Janice has over 20 years experience in the food industry. Janice states, "Combining the flavors of many cultures results in an explosion of taste delights." Janice has studied at the renowned Cordon Bleu in Paris and with well-respected chefs in France, Italy and China have enhanced Janice's repertoire. Extensive travel in Mexico afforded the opportunity to cook with a variety of local chefs, where she developed a love for the distinctive southwest flavors. Thus was born Janice's specialty in food fusions.

Committed to Excellence In your own private class, you will learn by experience in classes structured as hands-on workshops. With your customized menu, you will have fun being a part of a great culinary adventure! The Savory Spoon cooking classes have been designed with the home cook/entertainer in mind. We have a full line of beverages, wine, and beer to complement your meal.

The majority of our classes are "hands on" classes. Each class is 2—3 hours, with up to 20 students per class. Chef Thomas and her staff create menus to address the interests of all levels of cooks. After the meal has been prepared by the students, with the help of our chefs, you will sit down and enjoy the fruits of your labor. Each table will be set with French linens, candles, and fresh flowers.

Private Events are great for Team Building, Birthdays, Anniversaries, Reunions, Showers or any Celebration!
